The U.S. Department of Education's National Meeting on Alcohol and Other Drug Abuse and Violence Prevention is the national conference for examining issues around alcohol and other drug abuse and violence (AODV) prevention on college campuses and in their surrounding communities. The National Meeting includes keynote speakers, workshops, town meetings, poster presentations, exhibits, and the National Forum for Senior Administrators cosponsored with The Network: Addressing Collegiate Alcohol and Other Drug Issues. For complete conference information, exhibit and registration instructions, hotel and travel information, and agenda details, please visit our Web site at www.higheredcenter.org/natl/2006.

Who Should Attend?

- Prevention professionals (disciplines can include health and wellness, AODV prevention, student affairs, residence life, campus safety, law enforcement, and peer education)
- College and university students
- Community-based coalition members (including prevention and treatment providers)
- Representatives from state and national organizations concerned with AODV issues on college campuses and in their surrounding communities
